What Happens to My Artwork?

Selected artworks will be exhibited at Ballarat Central Library during the 16 Days of Activism Against Gender-Based Violence (25 November–10 December 2026). After the exhibition, your artwork will either be collected by you or considered a donation to become part of a collaborative piece.

Please select one option:

☐ I intend to collect my original artwork from Ballarat Central Library between 10am and 5pm on Monday 21st December.

My contact number/email: _____

☐ I consent to my artwork becoming part of the ongoing collaborative artwork. I understand that once incorporated into the collaborative artwork, it cannot be returned.

Tell us about your artwork (OPTIONAL)

How does your artwork relate to the theme "Respect Is..."?

Artist Consent

By submitting my artwork, I confirm that:

- ☐ The artwork is my original work, or I have permission to use any materials included in it.
- ☐ I understand that submission of my artwork does not guarantee inclusion in the exhibition.
- ☐ Minor modifications may be made to prepare my artwork for installation and long-term display.
- ☐ I retain copyright of my original artwork. By submitting it, I grant the participating organisations a non-exclusive, royalty-free licence to photograph, reproduce and display my artwork as part of the exhibition, education, promotion, reporting, publications, websites, social media and other activities related to this project and the collaborative artwork.
- ☐ I understand that organisers will take reasonable care but cannot accept responsibility for loss, theft, or damage.
- ☐ I understand that artworks will be displayed anonymously unless I choose to identify myself by including my name on the front of the artwork.
